BANKRUPTCY CODE SECTION 503(a)(1)(A),(3)(4)(A)(C)

I, John Lewis Mealer, request courts permission to enter this General Motors Corporation., bankruptcy Case No. 09-50026 as "a creditor in connection with the prosecution of a criminal offense relating to the case or to the business or property of the debtor;" under Title 11 U.S.C. 503(a)(1),(3)(A)(C) which will place this 'entity' in position for relief under Tort claims against General Motors Corporation for intentional criminal actions upon my private person that maliciously, intentionally and directly affected my business which occurred on June 9th, 2009.

I further declare the factual basis and timing of this claim to be for reasons of actual damages done to myself beyond the defamation which have taken time to accrue due to the nature of the interference. 2 fully documented, including but not limited to a letter of admission created by General Motors

4 attack on my person that intentionally interfered with and prevented growth funds for my 5 renewable fuel powered automobile manufacturing company (Mealer Companies LLC).

6 Affiant prays this court accept this MOTION TO APPROVE PROCEDURES FOR

10 Intentional Interference with a Prospective Business Advantage Tort and other illegal anti-11 competitive practices and actions committed upon John Lewis Mealer on June 9th, 2009.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

In re:

GENERAL MOTORS CORPORATION,

Debtor

CHAPTER 11

Case No. 09-50026

Honorable Robert E. Gerber

DOCUMENTATION AND REASONING FOR MOTION AND CLAIM

Affiant, John Lewis Mealer, hereby presents basis for this request with the following facts for this Honorable Court's consideration in granting this MOTION:

I. John Lewis Mealer owns an Arizona registered alternative fuel powered automobile manufacturing company, with an Internet Based "interim" website located at Internet URL <http://mealercompanies.com>

II. On June 9th, 2009 employees of General Motors corporation, A. did enter in concert, MEALER'S website, B. did sign on as investors under the guise of "MONEY01," C. did proceed to leave the proceeding comments to the crippling detriment of MEALER and the pending business-growth funding of Mealer Companies LLC in the tentative to (qualified) investor due diligence and subsequent loss of pending contract amount of $200,000,000.

III. Immediately following the General Motors Corporation employee rampage and blackening of MEALER'S name, GM followed up what they were claiming as "My (their) Blog" by contacting the various private individuals who made comments in regards to the GM attacks on John Lewis Mealer and Mealer Companies LLC by telling them MEALER and the iv. During this Internet Defamation attack by General Motors corporation against MEALER, which was intended to destroy MEALER AUTOMOBILES by and through the blackening of MEALER'S good name and reputation, the entirety of the GM attack went to potentially thousands of interested future customers, qualified investors and potential employees through the website RSS feed.

v. MEALER has lost his good standing as a 'green' automaker, respect as a viable businessman, untold future business capacity and other related matters due to the blackening of his name and the malicious destruction of goals for automobile manufacturing and the MEALER company name by intentional actions created and admitted to by the General Motors Corporation.

GENERAL MOTORS CORPORATION DEFAMATORY ASSAULT OF MEALER

Defamation: A statement which causes harm to reputation.

A statement is defamatory if it "tends to injure the plaintiff's reputation and expose the plaintiff to public hatred, contempt, ridicule, or degradation." Phipps v. Clark Oil & Ref. Corp., 408 N.W.2d 569, 573 (Minn. 1987). When the defamatory meaning is not apparent on its face, the plaintiff has the burden of pleading and proving such extrinsic facts. Anderson v. Kammeier, 262 N.W.2d 366, 371 (Minn. 1977).

The comments below as highlighted, italicized in quotes, and meanings in underlined in quotes, were in their entirety (yes, there's more), sent out to many highly interested qualified investors, future customers and future engineering and other employees who had signed up for RSS feed from the Mealer Companies LLC interim, qualified Investor based website known as mealercompanies.com;

1a. (Meriam Webster Dictionary), ..."Mealer Automobiles? America's next major automobile company??"

"Question Marks and multiple usage of Question marks meaning: a: Something unknown, unknowable, or uncertain b: someone (as an athlete or an automaker) whose condition, talent, or potential for success is in doubt."

1b. (Collins English Dictionary), "...HAH!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!"...

"HAH abbreviation of HA meaning an exclamation denoting surprise, joy or grief. Both uttered and as written, it expresses as great variety of emotions, determined by the time or the context. When repeated, ha, ha, it is an expression of laughter, satisfaction, or triumph, sometimes derisive"

1 laughter; or sometimes it is equivalent to "Well, it is so." Ha-has, and articulate hootings of
2 satirical rebuke. Carlyle

3 1c. (Stuart Jeffries, "The Joy of Exclamation Marks!" The Guardian, Apr. 29, 2009)
4 "There is surely a point after which exclamation marks no longer express friendliness. In this
5 post-literal time, exclamation marks become signs of sarcasm as witty correspondents rebel 6 against their overuse. Hence: 'I loved your last email! OMG did I LOVE it!!!!!!' The point is 7 they didn't. They were being IRONIC."

8 1d. Use of multiple Exclamation Points with exclamation point defined as: "as a symbol of 9 factorial function, or (in logic) occurring with an existential quantifier"

10 2. (Cambridge Idiom Dictionary), "...it's obvious you don't have one (a mind)..."
11 commonly referred to as out of your mind:
12 "extremely stupid or mentally ill."

13 3a. (Meriam-Webster Dictionary), "...self serving..."
14 "Serving one's own interests often in disregard of the truth or the interests of others."

15 3b. (Merriam-Webster Dictionary), "...pathetic..."
16 "Pitifully inferior or adequate"

17 3c. (Merriam-Webster Dictionary), "...MORON..."
18 "1. a person affected with mild retardation. 2. a very stupid person."

19 4. (Merriam-Webster Dictionary), "...CLOWN..."
20 "2. rude ill-bred person. 3. A person who habitually jokes and plays the buffoon."

21 5. (Merriam Webster Dictionary), "...real..." used twice to explain that Mealer was not "real".
22 "1. Not artificial, fraudulent, or illusionary. 2. GENUINE. 3. Genuinely good or capable of 23 success."

24 Furthermore, the GM attacks and admission of said attacks prove their attempt to 25 Intentionally Interfere with Mealer's Prospective Economic Advantage and destroy and blacken
Mealer's good name.

INTENTIONAL INTERFERENCE WITH PROSPECTIVE ECONOMIC ADVANTAGE

Nature of the Tort of Intentional Interference with Prospective Economic Advantage

The elements of that tort are:

1. an economic relationship between [the plaintiff and some third person]
containing the probability of future economic benefit to the [plaintiff], JL Mealer, while searching and discussing funding for expansion of his alternative fuel powered automotive manufacturing business with multiple funding

1 groups, individuals, engineers, engineering companies, fabrication companies, et al, was
2 attacked and irreparably blackened, libeled, other wise made to lose these funding
3 accounts by GM - GMAC employees who later apologized for (thus admitted) the events.

4 2. knowledge by the defendant of the existence of the relationship,

5 GM-GMAC employee entered Mealer's investor oriented website, signing up as a
6 Blogger calling himself "MONEY01" then proceeded to destroy and blacken Mealer's
7 reputation, name, company value and over-all funding viability of Mealer's future
8 projects and business in whole with his remarks while also claiming to be a "real"
9 engineer of "real" automobiles" and then ending his tirade with "I wish you ALL the 10 worst the world can give a self serving pathetic MORON."

11 3. intentional acts on the part of the defendant designed to disrupt the 12 relationship,

13 GM-GMAC employee signing on as MONEY01 provides proof he knew a money source
14 was the objective of Mealer's website, and the over-all defamation and attack proves
15 MALICE along with the apology as described in detail for GM-GMAC employee's 16 attack.
17

18 4. actual disruption of the relationship, [and] (5) damages to the plaintiff proximately
19 caused by the acts of the defendant.' (Buckaloo v. Johnson (1975) 14 Cal.3d 815, 827.)

20 Mealer has lost all pending business relationships due to the June 9th , 2009 attack
21 including pending business expansion investments of $200,000,000. as documented in 22 contracts which were pending prior to the blackening of Mealer's name and critical 23 engineering personnel who no longer wish to be associated with a defiled organization.

1 Additional GM-GMAC to Mealer Companies website visits show that GM-GMAC inner office /
2 engineering employees acting what appears to be combined effort may have been used to prevent Mealer
3 from maintaining mortgage payments and livelihood which ultimately resulted in Mealer going bankrupt
4 and declaring Ch 7 BK in Oct 2009 once the "pending-due-diligence" of investors fell through as per the 5 intentional and subsequent GM-GMAC published attacks against MEALER.

6 This Instant Case provides multiple violations of century old laws regulating business practices as
7 business are concerned. This case also proves the Anticompetitive Schemes that General Motors
8 Corporation has already admitted to when they offered a private 'heal-hearted' apology to MEALER.

9 Title 15 USC § 1. Trusts, etc., in restraint of trade illegal; penalty

10 Every contract, combination in the form of trust or otherwise, or conspiracy, in restraint of trade
11 or commerce among the several States, or with foreign nations, is declared to be illegal. Every 12 person who shall make any contract or engage in any combination or conspiracy hereby declared
13 to be illegal shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished by 14 fine not exceeding $100,000,000 if a corporation, or, if any other person, $1,000,000, or by 15 imprisonment not exceeding 10 years, or by both said punishments, in the discretion of the court.

16 Title 15 USC § 2. Monopolizing trade a felony; penalty

17 Every person who shall monopolize, or attempt to monopolize, or combine or conspire with any 18 other person or persons, to monopolize any part of the trade or commerce among the several 19 States, or with foreign nations, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and, on conviction thereof,
20 shall be punished by fine not exceeding $100,000,000 if a corporation, or, if any other person,
21 $1,000,000, or by imprisonment not exceeding 10 years, or by both said punishments, in the 22 discretion of the court.

- 23 (1) whether such person or the opposing party, or either party's representative, made 24 motions or asserted claims or defenses so lacking in merit as to show that such party or 25 representative acted intentionally for delay, or otherwise acted in bad faith;
(2) whether, in the course of the action involved, such person or the opposing party, or either party's representative, violated any applicable rule, statute, or court order providing for sanctions for dilatory behavior or otherwise providing for expeditious proceedings; and
(3) whether such person or the opposing party, or either party's representative, engaged in conduct primarily for the purpose of delaying the litigation or increasing the cost thereof.

26 Title 15 USC §15a. Suits by United States; amount of recovery; prejudgment interest

27 Whenever the United States is hereafter injured in its business or property by reason of 28 anything forbidden in the antitrust laws it may sue therefor in the United States district court for 29 the district in which the defendant resides or is found or has an agent, without respect to the 30 amount in controversy, and shall recover threefold the damages by it sustained and the cost of 31 suit. The court may award under this section, pursuant to a motion by the United States promptly made, simple interest on actual damages for the period beginning on the date of service of the pleading of the United States setting forth a claim under the antitrust laws and ending on the date of judgment, or for any shorter period therein, if the court finds that the award of such interest for such period is just in the circumstances. In determining whether an award of interest under this section for any period is just in the circumstances, the court shall consider only—

- (1) whether the United States or the opposing party, or either party's representative, made motions or asserted claims or defenses so lacking in merit as to show that such party or representative acted intentionally for delay or otherwise acted in bad faith;
- (2) whether, in the course of the action involved, the United States or the opposing party, or either party's representative, violated any applicable rule, statute, or court order providing for sanctions for dilatory behavior or otherwise providing for expeditious proceedings;
- (3) whether the United States or the opposing party, or either party's representative, engaged in conduct primarily for the purpose of delaying the litigation or increasing the cost thereof; and
- (4) whether the award of such interest is necessary to compensate the United States adequately for the injury sustained by the United States.

Affiant will immediately and as directed by this Honorable Court, provide additional documentation and evidence and the written admission from "GM" issued as an apology for the destruction of MEALER'S name and business.

Affiant prays this court accept this MOTION TO APPROVE PROCEDURES FOR ADMINISTERING CLAIMS UNDER BANKRUPTCY CODE SECTION 503(a)(1)(A),(3)(4) (A)(C) as explained by this DOCUMENTATION AND REASONING OF MOTION AND CLAIM and allow affiant access to this bankruptcy court in order to claim the tort violations against General Motors Corporation et al, by and through admissions made by General Motors Corporation regarding Debtor's malicious defamation, Intentional Interference with a Prospective Business Advantage Tort and other illegal anti-competitive practices and actions committed upon John Lewis Mealer on June 9th, 2009.
